2020-2021 Registration Packet

Families helping families educate their children since 1999!

Code of Conduct

- A parent, guardian, or designated adult must accompany their child/children at ALL HEofS activities, including park day
- Respect of authority, others, and property
- Respectful language

Parents will be held responsible for their children's conduct. We reserve the right to discontinue membership if the Code of Conduct is not followed.

Conflict Resolution Steps of Action

1. Child to Child with adult mediation—respectfully resolve conflict between children.
2. Adult to Adult—taking children calmly and discussing conflict with all parents, guardians, or designated adults.
3. Parent to Park Director—Refer to Park director for Mediation.

We care and love our children enough to protect them from physical and mental trauma, therefore if consecutive warnings are given you may be suspended from the group.

A terminated membership is the last step in conflict resolution process. All conflicts will be handled individually, and with respect to families and circumstances involved. Reasons for denial and/or termination of membership will include but are not limited to:

- Threatening and/or violent behavior.
- Sowing seeds of discourse, gossiping with deliberate intent to hurt a person's integrity and good standing in the group, and/or passing on information with no factual truth.
- Failure to comply with any HEofS guidelines or by-laws.

Membership Termination by Board

- In the event that a member shall need to be removed from the group the board of directors shall vote at a meeting to part ways with the member for the good of the group. If the vote carries, a board member will inform the member that they are no longer a member in good standing and will be removed from all membership lists and accounts.
- A loss of membership is permanent. Once a member has been removed from the group for non-compliance, they will not be admitted back into the group. Loss of membership means removal from all of HEofS systems and functions. This includes being a guest of a good standing member to any HEofS event.
- Members agree not to pursue litigation in the event that they lose their membership. Should any conflict or dispute arise during membership, the member will agree to settle any differences by mediation and not litigation.

A parent, guardian, or designated adult must accompany their child/children at ALL HEofS activities, including Park day. Parents will be held responsible for enforcing the Code of Conduct.

I acknowledge I am responsible for my children at ALL TIMES and at ALL EVENTS and the Code of Conduct and the Conflict Resolution Steps of Action and will uphold both of them.

HEofS Guest Policy

We welcome friends of HEofS members to come to either one event or field trip before becoming a member of HEofS. Immediate family members may come to any number of fieldtrips/events as long as they do not homeschool. If immediate family members homeschool and live in the Phoenix area, they will be bound under the same policy as a friend, attending one event or fieldtrip before becoming an active member of HEofS.

Dress Code Policy

We ask you to abide by the dress code to the best of your ability in order to support the many Christian homeschooling families that are members of HEofS that are trying to provide a Christian environment with wholesome values for their children. HEofS enjoys an excellent reputation among the citizens of Surprise. While there are many reasons for this reputation, one of the ways to help maintain it is for all members to present a respectable and wholesome image to the public. It is important that the public has confidence in the members and the members have confidence/pride in themselves when attending activities. To help present this image and foster public confidence, members must dress appropriately for the activity.

Guidelines

Members will wear clean and well-maintained attire appropriate to the type of activities they are doing. It is preferred that all members wear one of the HEofS shirts or jackets when participating in Park day, activities, fairs, and field trips. This gives us the benefit of identifying all the families and children belonging with HEofS. In compliance with this policy, the following are examples of unacceptable attire:

- Clothing with foul language
- Clothing with obscene images
- Clothing revealing body parts that should remain private

Illness Policy

Participation in any HEofS events is at your own risk. You accept responsibility should you catch any communicable disease(s).

We ask you do not attend Park Day, field trips or any other HEofS activities if you or your child(ren) are ill.

People with the following symptoms should not attend:

1. Fever (within the last twenty-four hours)
2. Colored mucus (yellow or green snotty nose)
3. Diarrhea, vomiting or nausea
4. Eye drainage
5. Virus or infection (known to be contagious)
6. Rashes
7. Head lice

This is for the protection of the children and families involved, so we can continue to provide the highest quality programs for all children. Please be considerate of others regarding your child(ren) and illnesses.

In addition, please follow any federal, state or local guidelines regarding any pandemic regulations.

Statement of Faith

1. We believe the Bible to be inspired of God, infallible and the supreme and final authority for all faith and life; and that there is one GOD, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe in the virgin birth and sinless life, literal death and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ.
3. We believe that mankind is lost without hope and doomed to eternal destruction without salvation, and that salvation is obtained only by grace through faith in the shedding of Jesus Christ's blood for the atonement and remission of our sins.

Family

We understand "family" to mean a male and female parent, legally married, although we recognize the exceptions of a single parent, adopted, foster, step children, and grandchildren. We believe that the family is the basic governmental, social, and spiritual unit. In it, the child learns self-government, social relationships, and defines their spiritual beliefs.

Statement of Marriage, Gender and Sexuality

We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. (Gen. 1:26-27) Rejection of one's biological sex is a rejection of the image of God within that person.

We believe that the term "marriage" has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture. (Gen. 2:18-25.) We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other. (1 Cor. 6:18; 7:2-5; Heb. 13:4) We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a man and a woman.

We believe that any form of sexual immorality (including adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, bisexual conduct, bestiality, incest, and use of pornography) is sinful and offensive to God. (Matt 15:18-20; 1 Cor 6:9-10.)

We believe that God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ. (Acts 3:19-21; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Cor. 6:9-11)

We believe that every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect, and dignity. (Mark 12:28-31; Luke 6:31.) Hateful and harassing behavior or attitudes directed toward any individual are to be repudiated and are not in accord with Scripture nor the bylaws of Home Educators of Surprise.

As a member of HEofS, I have read and will respect the above statements.

Volunteering

We require that all of our members volunteer at least once a school year for one or more activities or coordinate a field trip. The Board consists of 5 unpaid members that are homeschooling their child(ren) and coordinating everything that happens for Home Educators of Surprise. We ask that you assist us in order to help us make this group fun and engaging for everyone.

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father encourage you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say. (2 Thessalonians 2:16)
